

Assignment 10 – Read/Write to a File

Write a program that will read a text file with student numeric grades. The program will calculate the average of the grades. It will also find how many grades are more than the average. The output will be stored in a txt file.

Create your own data file with grades. Make sure the results have appropriate labels.